Veteran Houston TV Reporter Joins Houston Housing Authority

Update Contact Files: New Media Contact for the HHA

Houston – Dennis Spellman has been named Vice President, Office of External Affairs, for the Houston Housing Authority. He will serve as the Press Secretary for HHA, and will also lead the Communications and Community Relations departments and the non-profit entity, Houston Housing Resource, Inc.

“The Houston Housing Authority has made tremendous strides to expand services to our clients as we continue to transform communities and improve lives,” said Ernie Etuk, HHA President and CEO. “The addition of Dennis to our leadership team will help strengthen our position in this competitive economic environment.”

Spellman is an award-winning broadcast journalist with more than 20 years of experience. For the past nine years he has served as general assignment reporter for Channel 39 News in Houston. Previously he anchored for KTRH news radio in Houston. He also spent several years managing radio news operations in several New England markets. Spellman has won numerous awards and was nominated for a 2008 Emmy.

The Houston Housing Authority provides affordable homes to more than 60,000 people throughout Houston. The agency and its affiliates own and operate 25 housing communities with more than 6,500 units for families, elderly and other residents. More information about HHA can be found at www.housingforhouston.com.
