INDUSTRY EXPERT RETURNS TO HOUSTON HOUSING AUTHORITY AS VICE PRESIDENT FOR HOUSING OPERATIONS

HOUSTON—A dynamic leader with more than 20 years' experience revitalizing public housing and rebuilding communities has been appointed Vice President of Housing Operations for the Houston Housing Authority.

Sherri Sengsouvanha is returning to the Houston Housing Authority after previously serving as HHA's Director, Real Estate Investments & Development

"Sherri has devoted her career to finding affordable housing solutions and rebuilding communities," said Tim Seckinger, Houston Housing Authority Interim President & CEO. "We're excited to have her back at HHA, working with us to meet Houstonian's housing needs and the challenges of the coming decade."

Immediately prior to her work at HHA, Sengsouvanha led the Rockford (Ill.) Housing Authority's development department, capital fund program and all development activities related to affordable housing in the community as the Deputy Director of Development. As Vice President of Housing Operations for HHA, Sengsouvanha will manage the operation of HHA assets and oversee maintenance, resident services and public safety at public housing communities.

"My goal is to create properties that raise the bar and become assets in the communities they're in," said Sengsouvanha.

Sengsouvanha has a B.S. in Business Administration from Columbia College.

The Houston Housing Authority provides affordable homes and services to more than 55,000 people throughout Houston. The agency and its affiliates own and operate 25 housing communities with more than 6,500 units for families, elderly and other residents. More information about HHA can be found at www.housingforhouston.com.
