New Vice President of Administration to join Houston Housing Authority

HOUSTON—Joshua R. Meehan will join the Housing Authority on July 11 as the Vice President of Administration. Meehan recently served as Director of Communications and Policy at the Cambridge Housing Authority in Cambridge, MA. He was responsible for the agency’s ground-breaking and highly respected Moving To Work program.

“Josh’s experience developing innovative programs in Cambridge will definitely move us forward in developing new ideas and programs to better serve our residents and program participants,” said Tory Gunsolley, Houston Housing Authority President & CEO.

Meehan has a Bachelor of Arts in Communications and Political Science from Hampshire College and a Master of Public Policy from Tufts University. Meehan will be responsible for policy development, government relations, public relations, quality control, and customer service.

“I look forward to working with Mr. Gunsolley as the Housing Authority works to provide much needed affordable housing for Houstonians,” said Meehan. “I am honored to play a part in making the Houston Housing Authority one of the best in the country.”

The Houston Housing Authority provides affordable homes and services to more than 55,000 people throughout Houston. The agency and its affiliates own and operate 25 housing communities with about 5,500 units for families, elderly and other residents.
